

Entrepreneurship & Florida Libraries

Orange County Library's Melrose Center provides AV recording studios, conference rooms, technology training, and more

Source: <http://tic.ocls.info>

UCF's Blackstone LaunchPad is a collaboration between campus library, business school, and other partners to encourage entrepreneurship among students

Source: <http://ucf.thelaunchpad.org>

Pasco Enterprise Network is a collaboration between area libraries, chambers of commerce, and others to provide small business startup support

Source: <http://pascoedc.com/pen>

Hillsborough County Library provides workshops, technology, and meeting space for entrepreneurs

Source: <http://www.hcplc.org/hcplc/entrepreneurs>

Floridians can identify customer demographics, view business plans, and more with Florida Electronic Library

Source: Small Business Resources, Florida Electronic Library, <http://www.flelibrary.org/smallbusiness.php>

328,068

Companies filed with Florida Division of Corporations in 2014

Source: http://sunbiz.org/corp_stat.html

192,900

Jobs Supported (2012)

Source: Tax payer Return on Investment in Florida Public Libraries 2013, <http://roi.info.florida.gov>

