

Love Your Library Month Proclamation

Whereas, libraries connect people, materials and culture to build and sustain a diverse and vibrant community; and

Whereas, in a world undergoing constant change, libraries provide enduring connections to the past and future of our communities, nations, and civilizations;

Whereas, the expansion of electronic networks linking libraries and their resources make possible better and more easily accessible information for library users around the world;

Whereas, libraries provide entry to important research about health, economics, housing, the environment, and countless other areas to support better living conditions and to help people lead longer, more productive and fulfilling lives;

Whereas, the Name of Library offers story times, teen programming and summer reading programs to encourage children to begin and continue habits of reading that will benefit their personal and professional lives;

Whereas, the Name of Library support a competitive workforce with basic literacy programs, computers, small business start-up, job searching and other resources to support businesses and economic development;

Whereas, the Name of Library engages the people of County or City with services, spaces and resources to enrich their lives and the life of our community; and

Whereas, the Name of Library creates a welcoming environment for everyone to celebrate the joy of literacy, learning, creating, communicating and cultural exchange.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that I, insert name and title of official, proclaim February 2021 as Love Your Library Month in insert name of County or City and State and encourage all residents to visit our library and thank a librarian for making this unique and wonderful institution possible.
